

Willow Creek

Foundry Cove

Ryder

After losing her husband, Sarah packed up & moved her whole life, & her two kids, to Willow Creek where she got a job at the local hospital. Even though they've been in the neighborhood for a couple of years now, Sarah still prefers to keep to herself, & little Marlene has definitely taken after her mom in that sense. Will these two end up coming out of their shells & making friends as time goes on?

Amin Twins

Twins Malek & Aisha recently inherited their late Aunt's house & they couldn't bring themselves to sell it since it's where they spent the majority of their teen years after losing their parents. So instead they've decided to move back to Willow Creek & pursue their careers from here!

Simmons

Nathaniel & Jane started having kids really early in life & they just haven't stopped! But since they both want a big family, it's understandable! But since they already have their hands full with two kids, twin toddler girls, & money running tight - are they truly prepared for another unexpected "surprise" that's on the horizon?

BFF's

Free spirit Liberty, cheerful Summer, and geeky Travis are unlikely friends, and nothing can come between these three. Not even the feeling both Liberty and Summer had for Travis when they first met. These days though, Liberty and Summer seem to have grown "closer" than ever before...

Courtyard Lane

Nunez

Ronnie & Wanda have everything they could ever want, a comfortable home, stable income & a loving family. Ronnie makes a living as a Head Caterer while Wanda loves staying at home & looking after the kids. Elle loves Voidcritters & chess, while Ethan loves playing outdoors.

Pancakes

Poor, poor Bob & Eliza - have they ever been happy? It seems there's nothing one can do to please the other. Do they truly enjoy being married, or are they only staying together for the sake of their children, Isaac & Sabrina? Will more time together make them remember why they fell in love, or will it be the spark that makes their whole relationship go up in flames?

Burke

The Burke family appears to be the perfect family from the outside, but there's some drama brewing between jealous Nicolas & his wife, Carol. Branden doesn't notice anything wrong though. He's too busy with his friends, & his writing & painting. Thanks to her Scout meetings, Summer is also out of the house more than she's home. Will Nicolas & Carol sort out their issues before it starts effecting their kids?

Ellis

The Ellis family fits the definition of "typical suburban family" to a T: caring parents, sweet twin kids, an adorable little toddler...& a bratty teenager that enjoys nothing more than being the center of attention.

Eckart

Matthew & Julian have always wanted nothing more than a big, loud & busy house. Now thanks to their three wildly different teenagers, rambunctious child & two dogs - they've gotten their wish! But with all the extra hours Matthew puts in at the University, & Julian's book tours, have they gotten in over their heads? Or can they wrangle this rowdy family of theirs?

Pendula View

Goth

The Goths are one of the oldest & most aristocratic families that have graced the shores of Willow Lake. However this lineage comes with its fair share of secrets & rivalries, the oldest one being with the Roth family. But even with that rivalry, Cassandra couldn't help falling for the Roth family's enigmatic heir, Xavier. Will their relationship crack under their family's dislike of each other? Or will it end up being the perfect thing to bridge the gap between their family's dynasties?

Marx

Tobias & Delilah have created an amazing life for themselves & their 2 kids, Pearl & Kent. Delilah comes from one of the wealthiest families in Willow Creek, so she always expects the best. Luckily she's a famous Food Critic & Tobias runs a few successful Tech Companies. Unfortunately growing up wanting for nothing, has made Pearl into the very definition of a "mean girl" who delights in being the "Queen Bee" in every situation.

Prentiss

After losing his first wife, Reese never imagined he'd get married again, or have more children - until he met Camila. They fell in love & she became stepmother to his son, Jeremy - who was barely younger than her - which led to more than a bit of tension. Now they're decades down the line & his (now bigger) family is on much better terms...if you ignore the rising tensions within the household thanks to Reese & Camila's oldest, Reese Jr & his lack of drive to do anything other than partying.

Kumar-Mahajan

The Kumar family have been living in Willow Creek since right after Sahil & Maryam got married & it's where they raised their 2 girls, Kyra & Anvi. After she got married Kyra & her husband, Tarak, decided to stay at home with her parents since she'll be inheriting the house. Anvi also still lives at home since she really doesn't want to get married any time soon!

Sage Estates

Spencer-Kim-Lewis

Okay, here's the breakdown: Dennis Kim and Lydia Spencer had a daughter named Alice Spencer-Kim, then divorced. Alice married Eric Lewis and had her own little girl, Olivia Kim-Lewis. They live with Alice's dad (Dennis, remember?) and Eric's mom, Vivian Lewis. Hey, no one ever said family was easy!

Jensen-Hale

Harrison Jensen-Hale is the latest in a long line of politicians in the Hale family that have lived in Willow Creek for generations. He & his wife, Naomi really are the power-couple of the town. Living with his brother has never bothered Jackson, but the tensions between his wife, Madilyn, his brother & his in-laws has only been building due to his brother's political agenda & his wife's career choice. This family may be more fractured than they first appear...

Oasis Springs

Bedrock Strait

Zest - Hunter - Pierce

Disowned by the Landgraabs for quitting school, Johnny wants to make his own fame and fortune as a standup comedian. His current living arrangements might not be glamorous, but he loves his neighbors! While Arron is unemployed, he still arrives home almost every day with something he's "found", usually something expensive. Leticia works as an artist, but she also have a love for collecting things, especially crystals & she loves her pup, Lulu, more than anything!

Louw

Jessie met her brother's best friend, Jeremy, at a College party one night, they started talking & the rest is history. Now 10 years later, they're married & have the twins, Nevaeh & Neale who are the light of their lives. Although his career as one of the department's top detective has Jeremy working long hours, he still tries to be there for his family as much as possible. Luckily Jessie stays at home to keep everything running smoothly!

Kendrick

With Benjamin teaching at the university, & Ella's demanding schedule as a litigator, things in the Kendrick household are as hectic as ever, with everyone constantly on the go! Hopefully they'll find a way to spend some time together too...

Parched Prospect

Smith

Brandon's sister, Jessie, fell in love with his best friend years ago & they started a life together. Now, years later, he's still close with his best friend, Jeremy & his sister - they're even living in the same town & their twins are growing up together!

Thomas

Two of the many things Janelle & Serenity always agreed on was their mutual love of their careers, & their desire to have a family. Now after almost two decades together, they both have successful careers & have found a way to balance life with their two amazing children too.

Rodgers

Due to Rodger's career, the Rodgers family have had to up & move their whole lives to a new town. Kristin doesn't mind though since she's more than happy just spending time with her little family, but she's hoping they can expand their family soon! However, with Rodger being away for work so often, he doesn't feel like adding more to their plates would be the best idea right now...

Rautenbach

Yvette & Nicholas seem like total opposites, & have since their high school days when they started dating, yet somehow they've always managed to make their relationship work! These days however things have been a bit tense with Yvette focusing on her career more than ever before & their teenage son, Brandon, keeping them both busy.

Roomies

This household seems to have stepped right out of a TV sitcom. With Zoe & J's still somewhat "new" relationship resulting in them becoming parents, will these two wacky & opposite Sims finally settle down or move out? Who knows, they sure don't! At least their current living situation means Blakely gets to grow up with two doting & whacky "uncles" that love having a little "niece" to spoil!

Skyward Palms

Caliente

It's no longer girls-only now that Caliente matriarch Katrina has moved in her mooching boy toy, Don. With three fiery, attractive ladies in the house, is it any wonder that Don has already struck up a secret relationship with Nina already?

Garcia

The Garcia's are just your average, busy family! Zachery is an Author. Daniela, works as an Arts Critic. Mikaela wants to be an Author just like her Dad, while Jessie spends most of his time in his room on his PC! The twins, Taylor & Trevor are little troublemakers! They love tinkering with everything they can find & breaking most of it!

Prentiss - Foster

With both Jeremy & Renéé being workaholics, the Prentiss kids are basically all being raised by their grandmother. Not that Angelica minds though! She loves devoting herself to her grandkids, especially since Craig job as Chief of Police keeps him busy & he keeps putting off retiring because he just loves his job too much!

Ryan

To say the Ryan household is chaotic would be an understatement! With a teenager, triplet boys, a toddler & an energetic dog running around, keeping track of everyone is hard enough! Now add a bakery to run & an Astronaut career on top of all of that, it's safe to say Connor & Marie have their work cut out for them!

Acquisition Butte

Roth

The Roth family are one of the oldest in Oasis Springs, having made their family fortune from the mines that used to be in the area. In fact there's so much history that comes with their name, that when they got married, Monty actually adopted Morgana's family name! Having a legacy this old however means that there's also a lot of rivalries & expectations that come along with it, & unfortunately that weight falls on Xavier. Will his family's expectations ruin his relationship with Cassandra?

Landgraab

The Landgraabs seem like the perfect family; wealthy, well-mannered, brilliant. But Nancy and Geoffrey are each hiding something. Will their secrets tear them apart or will they continue to build a wealthy dynasty? Will Malcolm end up being everything they've wanted from a son? Or will he end up becoming a disappointment like his older brother did?

Newcrest

Ridgeline Drive

Wahl

Jordan & Marsha Wahl have been married for more than a decade, but they've never been able to have kids, which has been hard on them both since they love children & wanted a big family! They own Wahl to Wahl Toys, the toystore in Magnolia Promenade, & they've finally decided to start looking into adoption, so their little family might be a bit bigger soon! Until then, Nugget is their baby!

Bridgeview

Griffith

Pace & Makenna Griffith have only been married for a little over 6 months & they're struggling a bit with money. Makenna loves cooking & gardening & would love to make a living as a Chef, but unfortunately she's had a bit of a slow start in the Culinary career. Pace on the other hand is perfectly happy with just watching TV all day, but recently his wife convinced him to turn his love of fishing into somewhat of a job to help with their bills.

Jacobs - Avery

Tanya & Dianna met at a vegan restaurant one night & it was basically love at first sight! After just 6 months of dating they decided to move in together so they bought a house in Newcrest that was perfect for Tanya to do lots of gardening & it had lots of natural light for Dianna to do their paintings & interior design drawings. They've also recently gotten engaged & can't wait to start their married lives & maybe even a family together?

Newcrest Students

Ryan - Lynn

Fontaine

Anton married Crystal just 2 years ago after meeting her through his Production company. Being a famous guitarist & songwriter, Anton is still popular among the music scene these days. Crystal was an up-&-coming singer with great ambition. Anton owns Infamous Records in Magnolia Promenade & recently Crystal convinced him they needed a new place, so he had a mansion built for them in Newcrest.
